2 Independent women’s funds launched

Security for LGBTQ Activists – GEORGIA
Following violent threats, IDENTOBA used a UAF grant to move to a more secure building, enabling them to continue vital services to the LGBTQ community.

Sex Workers’ Rights are Human Rights – KYRGYZSTAN
When a new law was proposed to criminalize sex work and legitimize violence against sex workers, Tais Plus used a UAF grant to immediately launch a campaign to stop the bill.

Women Stand for Peace – PALESTINE & ISRAEL
Following an Israeli attack on Gaza, UAF awarded emergency grants, funding both a peaceful protest by Palestinian women’s groups and a campaign by Israeli citizens calling for an end to the violence.

Rising Up Against Dowry Killings – NEPAL
Outraged by the dowry-related death of a young woman, the Women Awareness Center Nepal (WACN) used a UAF grant for an urgent campaign and rally, bringing thousands of people into the streets and pressuring authorities to take action.

Supporting Migrant Women’s Rights - HONG KONG/TAIWAN
After a domestic worker was unlawfully detained in Taiwan, UAF provided emergency support to Asia Pacific Mission for Migrants (APMM) to ensure her release.
